

Nicole Segalini, B.S.
Advyzom Medical and Regulatory Fellow

Nicole Segalini is participating in the medical and regulatory fellowship program at Advyzom as she is taking a gap year while applying to medical schools.

Nicole is an EMT and an active member of the Berkeley Heights Rescue Squad as Crew Chief. She completed a Surgical Student Fellowship for Morristown Memorial Medical Center in New Jersey and is a Research Assistant for a Surgeon at Tufts Medical Center, analyzing and editing data for publications on oncologic surgeries.

She has also held positions as an Intern for Physician Just Equity which creates and organizes citations for publications and presentations of physicians focusing on diversity, equity, and inclusion in surgery and a Research Assistant for the Professor of Surgery at Tulane School and a Medicine and Research Assistant for the Neuroscience Department at Lafayette College.

She has received several awards for her dedication as a volunteer for the Rescue squad and received the Aaron O. Hoff Award from Lafayette College recognizing her service activities.

Nicole earned her Bachelor of Science Degree in Neuroscience from Lafayette College and is presently taking the Medical College Admission Test. She has received web-based training from National Institutes of Health Office of Extramural Research.