

Donna Sobol, B.S.
Vice President, Business Operations

Donna Sobol is Vice President of Business Operations at Advyzom. Donna works with the CEO and Business Partners to manage Financial Operations for Advyzom which includes managing expenses, payroll and financial records. Additionally, Donna manages the invoicing and contracts process and is the primary interface to clients. Donna has over 14 years of experience supporting business and financial operations.

Prior to joining Advyzom, Donna spent 10 years of her career working for Chase Manhattan Bank in New York in various departments. As Vice President in the Personal and Private Banking Divisions, Donna was responsible for the sales and client services for the Upper West Side of New York comprising a total business of $41million. Donna brings a broad array of expertise in financial and operational leadership experience. She was able to refine her finance, operations and leadership skills through leading multiple projects and successfully collaborating with high-level executives.

Donna holds a BS in Finance from Fairfield University, Fairfield, Connecticut. She plays an active role in community and educational fundraising events.