

Linda Sreshta, M.Ed.

Senior Director, Medical Writing and Publications

Linda Sreshta is a Senior Director, Medical Writing and Publications at Advyzom. Linda has over 30 years of experience in the healthcare industry with 30 years of medical writing and preparation of clinical documentation for regulatory submissions across various therapeutic areas. She is responsible for providing biopharmaceutical clients with a broad range of clinical and nonclinical documents for IND and CTA filings, and for global marketing applications. Linda is skilled in her abilities to communicate effectively, critically review, analyze, and interpret clinical trial data, and present scientific information in a clear and concise manner with particular attention to detail.

Prior to joining Advyzom, Linda was President of ClinDoc Associates Ltd, wherein she was responsible for providing strategic direction and medical writing services to various large pharmaceutical companies for regulatory submissions, including INDs, CTAs, NDAs, and MAAs. Linda has experience across a range of therapeutic areas, including anesthesia, anti-infectives, cardiovascular, central nervous system, metabolic, oncology, respiratory, rheumatology, and urology. Linda also held positions as Senior Medical Writer for GlaxoWellcome (now GlaxoSmithKline), R.W. Johnson Pharmaceutical Research Institute and Hoffman-LaRoche.

Linda earned her Bachelor of Arts in Psychobiology from State University of NY at Binghamton and Master of Education from Rutgers University.
