

SYDNEY SHEL TZ-KEMPF, B.S., M.S., Ph.D.
Senior Associate, Medical Writing and Publications

Dr. Sydney Sheltz-Kempf is a Senior Associate in Medical Writing and Publications at Advydom. Sydney is responsible for leading team members in authoring and providing high quality documents for electronic submissions to health authorities. These documents include Clinical Study Reports, Clinical Protocols, Non-Clinical Summaries, NDA high level summaries (including integrated summaries of safety and efficacy), Clinical Overviews, Pediatric Plans, Briefing Packages, Orphan Drug Designation, Investigator Brochures, Fast Track Designation, Protocols, Development Safety Update Reports, 120-Day Safety Reports, and Safety Narratives. She has a proven track record in delivering projects with strict deadlines.

Prior to joining Advydom, Sydney worked as Senior Medical Writer at Sutro Biopharma, Inc., where she authored documents about antibody-drug conjugates for NDA submissions in different types of cancer (non-small cell lung cancer [adult biological men and women], acute myeloid leukemia [pediatric], and platinum-resistant ovarian cancer [adult biological women]). Sydney also worked as a medical writer at MMS Holdings, Inc., where she was a Subject Matter Expert on Clinical Study Reports and trained new writers in this document type. She also served as the Lead Writer for a team of 8 other writers for a Breakthrough Therapy/NDA submission. Other therapeutic areas include hearing loss (inherited and non-syndromic), vertigo, central nervous system disorders, mental health disorders, posttraumatic stress disorder, and hereditary angioedema.

Sydney earned her Master of Science and PhD in Biology (concentrating in developmental neurobiology) from Western Michigan University. She also holds a Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry and Molecular Biology from Bethel College.
